COMPREHENSION

ACT I

Fill in the blanks using the words provided.

You may use a word once only, and you may not need to use them all.

Theseus, the _____ of Athens, can hardly wait to get married to _____, the Queen of the _____, whom he conquered in _____. Egeus disrupts their preparations and complains that his daughter, _____, will not obey his instructions and marry _____ because she loves _____ instead. Theseus tells Hermia that, on the day of the royal wedding, she must decide either to marry as her father wishes, be executed, or become a _____ forever. Lysander and Hermia bewail their bad fortune and decide to _____ from _____. They tell Hermia's friend Helena all about their intentions. _____ was once loved by Demetrius, before he loved Hermia. She still loves Demetrius and secretly decides to tell him of the lovers' _____ to leave the town, in the hope of receiving some _____.

Meanwhile, a group of simple _____ from Athens are planning to perform a _____ for the Duke's _____ celebrations. They plan on staging Pyramus and _____, with Bottom as _____ and _____ as Thisbe, although _____ wants to play all the parts in the play. They decide to meet in the _____ the next night to rehearse.
